

FUTURE RIVERS FILM SERIES

2024-25

Exclusive Screening

"An extraordinary film that asks all of us to think differently about the communities in which we live and the environments that we must respect."

– Ken Burns

Tues., Nov. 26

3 - 5 pm

HUB 334

Snacks provided

new orleans
film festival

JURY AWARD WINNER
2022

new orleans
film festival

AUDIENCE AWARD
2022

Hollow Tree (a feature film at the New York Climate Film Festival) follows three teenagers coming of age in their sinking homeland of Louisiana. For the first time, they notice the Mississippi River's engineering, stumps of cypress trees, and billowing smokestacks. Their different perspectives — as Indigenous, white, and Angolan young women — shape their story of the climate crisis.

